SHORT FORM COMPLAINT

COUNT XIX
NEGLIGENCE - Monopolist
(As Against the NFL)

1. The NFL, by and through its monopoly power, has historically had a duty to invoke rules that protect the health and safety of its players, including Plaintiffs, and the public.

2. As a monopoly, the NFL has a duty to protect the health and safety of its players, as well as the public at large.

3. The NFL’s failure to exercise reasonable care in its duty increased the risk that the Plaintiffs would suffer long-term neurocognitive injuries.

4. The Plaintiffs reasonably relied to their detriment on the NFL’s actions and omissions on the subject.

5. Under all of the above circumstances, it was foreseeable that the NFL’s failure to exercise reasonable care in the execution of its duties would cause or substantially contribute to the personal injuries suffered by the Plaintiffs.

6. The NFL’s failure to exercise reasonable care in the execution of its duties proximately caused or contributed to Plaintiffs’ injuries.

7. As a result of the NFL’s negligence, the NFL is liable to Plaintiffs, and the Plaintiffs are entitled to, and seek, all damages allowed by applicable law.

COUNT XX
NEGLIGENCE
(As Against the NFL and NFL Properties)

8. The NFL and NFL Properties breached their duty to ensure that the helmets they licensed, required and/or approved were of the highest possible quality and sufficient to protect the NFL players, including Plaintiffs, and/or they increased the plaintiffs’ risks of the long term health consequences of concussive brain injury.

9. The NFL and NFL Properties breached their duty by licensing the Riddell Defendants' helmets, and approving and/or requiring the use of the helmets for the NFL players, knowing or having reason to know that the helmets were negligently and defectively designed and/or lacked an adequate warning.

10. As a result of these breaches by the NFL and NFL Properties, Plaintiffs suffer personal injuries as a result the long-term health effects of concussive brain injuries.

11. As a result of the NFL and NFL Properties' negligence, the NFL Defendants are liable to Plaintiffs, and the Plaintiffs are entitled to, and seek, all damages allowed by applicable law.
